

Teaching New York's Young to Swim

Photo by Underwood & Underwood

One of the city's floating baths on a hot day.

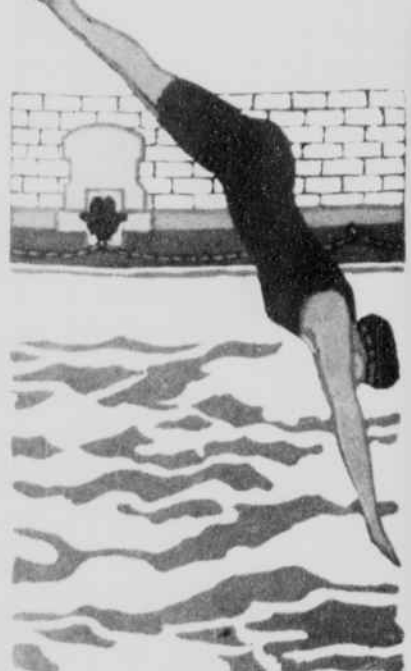

Matron and maid take to Father Knickerbocker's free waters.

This surf is made by the kicking legs of kiddies.

The first water steps—the land drill.

Practice in rescue work.

